Seasonal Labor Is Florida Problem

ATLANTA, Ga. — Regional officials of the U. S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Employment Security, said here today that a plan is being developed which should bring increased capabilities and responsibilities to the Florida Industrial Commission concerning the State's need for seasonal farm labor.

The proposed plan includes provisions for increased management of supplemental foreign labor by the State should the Secretary of Labor approve the use of such labor.

The statement came as a result of conflicting reports from the Office of Governor Haydon Burns and the Office of the Secretary of Labor yesterday when the Governor reported several provisions of the proposal. Regional Bureau of Employment Security officials at that point had not discussed the details with the Office of the Labor Secretary.

Regional officials of the Bureau of Employment Security will confer with Washington officials to-morrow concerning the plan and

Easements Bill Is Passed By House

TALLAHASSEE — The House passed Rep. Emmett Roberts' bill which tightens the hold the Central and South Florida Flood Control Drainage has on canal easements acquired years ago.

Roberts, of Palm Beach County, said the attorney general's office had requested the legislation to strengthen the position of flood control districts and other state agencies which could be threatened with lawsuits as a result of "sloppy" transfers.

"The sloppy bookkeeping actually goes back to the Everglades Drainage District days when easements and rights of way were granted to the state," Roberts said. "The bill clarifies statutes wherein state agencies specifically are given title to the lands."

Herald Columnist Is Banquet Speaker

Larry Thompson, Miami Herald columnist, was featured speaker Friday night at the annual banquet held by the Future Farmers of America chapter in Pahokee. In his column this week the outstanding writer had some kind remarks about his visit to the Glades. Reproduced below is part of his comment:

"We went to a banquet of the Future Farmers of America and Future Homemakers of America in the Pahokee High School Cafeteria. There are no more whole, healthy looking young people than these FFA and FHA members. Those are great organizations, teaching young people that there is dignity to the professions of agriculture and home making."

"There are 65 members of the Pahokee chapter of FFA. During the past school year, the chapter bought an Angus bull (and those things don't come cheap) in addition to a new corn wagon, a new cattle squeeze chute, and much other valuable farm equipment and harvested 52 acres of sugar cane.

"The chapter owns 60 head of cattle and individual members own almost that many more."

"This is just a sample of what the boys and the chapter have done. I'm telling you they operate like a big business and farming to them is — and will be — a business, because that's the way they are being trained. There'll be no share croppers along Tobacco Road from that club."

"The outgoing president is an unusual and an outstanding boy who typifies what FFA stands for. He is Billy Sheffield, Jr. 18.

"Billy, who will be a senior next year, not only is chapter president, but was the able toastmaster at the banquet; the FFA girls selected him as their club sweetheart; he was a member of the state championship dairy and beef cattle judging teams; he received two awards at the banquet as the outstanding all-round boy in scholarship, leadership and agricultural accomplishments; he was chairman of the chapter's Star Farmer — and on and on and on."

"That Billy is quite a boy. But he is simply typical of these bright-faced, bright-brained young men, like Larry Miller, Tommy McElhenney and all the rest."

President Harlan Sears presided at the Monday meeting of the Canal Point Lions Club at which time the members discussed ways to raise $200.00 to keep the Canal Point street lights burning. ### Baptists Celebrate 25th Radio-TV Anniv.

Twenty-five years ago Southern Baptists launched their first regular radio program, "The Baptist Hour," over 17 stations in 11 states. Today it is heard weekly by an estimated 20 million listeners.

Canal Point Baptist Church will join more than 1,000 other Southern Baptist churches in marking this significant anniversary when it observes "Baptist Radio-TV Sunday" on May 23.

"This is an annual event in the life of the Southern Baptist Convention," the Rev. Lawrence Stewart, pastor, said, "as we endeavor to inform and inspire our members with the ministry of electronic evangelism provided around the world by our Radio and Television Commission."

"Added meaning is given to this year's event," he continued, "by calling attention to the twenty-five-year broadcast ministry of 'The Baptist Hour,' which now is heard on more than 500 radio stations."

A color film strip and a 15-minute tape-recorded message by Dr.

Paul M. Stevens, director of the Commission, will highlight the special service at 11:00 a. m.

The visual and audio presentation will tell about 22 weekly radio programs and one television series produced and distributed by the Commission, which is located in Fort Worth, Tex., to 1776 radio and television stations.

Information also will be given about the several documentary and inspirational programs produced by the Commission each year for the three major radio-TV networks.

A message from the Treasury of a free people

Each of the seven denominations of Series E Savings Bonds shows a different President of the United States. If you're interested in this kind of art, the seven make a nice collection.

Along with the hobby, Savings Bonds offer such extras as riskless investing, 33 1/2% more money at maturity, and financial freedom for your future.

But there are other kinds of freedom tied in with your purchase of Savings Bonds. Freedom to speak your piece, choose your job, and own your property, to name a few. Every Bond you buy helps our government further the cause of freedom everywhere in the world today.

Why not start collecting U. S. Savings Bonds now? Only $18.75 each for the George Washington variety, at your bank or on Payroll Savings where you work.

Keep freedom in your future with

Soil Study Bill Is Passed In House

TALLAHASSEE — The House of Representatives Tuesday approved a joint resolution directing the Legislative Council to make a two-year study of soil depletion and subsidence in the Everglades and other Florida Agricultural Agencies.

The proposal was submitted by Rep. Emmett Roberts, Joel T. Daves III, Donald H. Reed Jr. and Louis A. Bafalis of Palm Beach County.

The resolution, which now goes to the senate, calls for a report to the 1967 legislature of possible solutions for soil loss, estimated in excess of an inch a year in Glades area.

It has been calculated that current depletion rates much of the now rich Glades soil may be virtually worthless by the end of the century.

Reed said a prior study of the Glades area by geologists and biologists resulted in a finding that strange bacteria, currently uncontrollable, cause most of the loss of rich mucklands. The bacteria create fine dust layers on muckland surfaces which easily are blown away.

The legislative Council study would be a cooperative venture through its Agriculture Committee, the State Agriculture Department, Agriculture Experiment Stations, Attorney General's Office and other agencies.

The council would be authorized to prepare legislation to implement recommendations.

The $250 fare is for tourist class travel. Cost for first-class fare will be $300.

The fare requested by Delta will be restricted to foreign nationals who reside more than 100 miles from the continental United States and who can offer proof of foreign residence.

A typical 9,000-mile jet itinerary for a foreign tourist would include visits to New York, Atlanta, Jacksonville, Miami, Tampa, New Orleans, Houston, Dallas, Las Vegas, Memphis, St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, Detroit, Charlotte, Washington and Philadelphia.

New $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

The Treasury explains why the new ones you buy and the ones you own now are better than ever

Q: How does the new  $3\frac{3}{4}\%$  interest rate benefit me?

A: With Series E Bonds, the rate turns  $$18.75$  into  $$25.00$  fourteen months faster than the old rate. Your savings increase faster, because your Bonds mature in just 7 years, 9 months.

With Series H Bonds, the 10-year maturity period stays the same but more interest is paid you each six months. With both E and H Bonds the new rate works out to  $2\frac{1}{4}\%$  for the first year and a half; then a guaranteed  $4\%$  each year to maturity.

Q: When did the new rate become effective?

A: June 1, 1959.

Q: Does the new rate change the Bonds I bought before June 1, 1959?

A: All older E and H Bonds pay more now—an extra  $\frac{1}{2}\%$  from now on, when held to maturity. The increase takes effect in the first full interest period after June 1.

Q: Will the Bonds I own automatically earn their new rate?

A: Yes. You don't need to do a thing—just hold on to your Bonds.

Q: When my E Bonds mature, will they keep on earning interest?

A: Yes. An automatic 10-year extension privilege went into effect along with the new interest rate. This means your E Bonds will automatically keep earning interest after maturity.

Q: With the new interest rate, should I cash in my old Bonds and buy new ones?

A: No. The automatic  $\frac{1}{2}\%$  increase makes it unnecessary—and in almost every case it is to your advantage to retain your present Bonds.

Q: How are series H Bonds different from series E Bonds?

A: The chief difference is this: You buy H Bonds at full face value and the interest is paid by Treasury check every six months for the life of the Bond. You buy E Bonds at 75% of face value and the interest accumulated to maturity. H Bonds provide income for living expenses, while E Bonds build a nest egg for the future. That's why many retired people hold H Bonds and families saving for, say, a child's education, buy E Bonds.

Q: In what denominations can I buy series E and series H Bonds?

A: E Bonds:  $$25$  (cost  $$18.75$ ),  $$50$  (cost  $$37.50$ ),  $$100$  (cost  $$75.00$ ),  $$200$  (cost  $$150.00$ ),  $$500$  (cost  $$375.00$ ),  $$1,000$  (cost  $$750.00$ ),  $$10,000$  (cost  $$7,500.00$ ).

H Bonds:  $$500$ ,  $$1,000$ ,  $$5,000$  and  $$10,000$ . They are priced at face value.

Q: How safe are U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Savings Bonds are an absolutely riskless way to save. The United States Government guarantees the cash value of your Bonds will not drop, that it can only grow.

Q: What if my Bonds should be lost, stolen or destroyed?

A: You can't lose. Every Bond purchased is recorded by the Treasury. If anything happens to your Bonds they are replaced—free.

Q: Where can I buy Bonds?

A: Buy E Bonds at any bank—it takes only a few minutes. Buy them automatically through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. This Plan means you can have any amount you name automatically deducted every payday. The Bonds you buy by installments are delivered to you automatically, too. Your bank will take your order for H Bonds.

Q: How do I help strengthen America's peace power when I buy U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Peace costs money—money for military strength and for science. And money saved by individuals helps keep our economy sound.

How to speak out for freedom today

Free men have never gone in much for silence. Even before the first thirteen States became United States, men were speaking for freedom loud and clear.

Today Americans speak out for freedom many ways—in Congress, in local government, in neighborhood activities. Some speak out for freedom in other languages, in other lands. And millions of Americans speak out for freedom every time they buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

Every Savings Bond you buy is an investment in freedom. While you're saving money for your own family's future, you're helping Uncle Sam tend to the business of keeping men free today.

Perhaps you don't speak out for freedom in the same tone of voice when you buy a Bond as Patrick Henry did in his famous speech. But you speak every bit as surely. And every bit as proudly.

Why not speak out for freedom now? Buy Bonds at the bank or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

CUE FOR HEALTH

THE DENTISTRY OF YORE

In the early 1800's, news of the arrival of the itinerant dentist brought people hurrying to the town square. One by one, the dentist would administer treatment — mainly pulling teeth — often without ever dismounting from his horse!

Another practice of the early days of dentistry was pulling teeth to the accompaniment of a ragtag band. Not uncommon today is the use of soothing recorded music in a dentist's office — but in the old days the dentist had to round up his own musicians.

Today, every mother can give her family an advantage unknown to our ancestors — a lifetime of fewer cavities. New Cue Toothpaste with Fluoracton — the latest in cavity-prevention, can give a lifetime of fewer cavities when used in a program of regular check-ups, watching between meal sweets, and brushing after meals with Cue.

Seasonal Labor Is—

further details will be announced later.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz on a recent visit to the Florida fruit and vegetable areas expressed keen personal interest and concern in the State's agricultural labor problem.

The proposed plan emphasizes the positive reaction of State officials to the Secretary's request that Florida exert further effort to develop and utilize an American agricultural work force.

Governor Burn's announcement of the proposal yesterday follows:

The problem facing Florida's vast and growing agriculture industry have received much attention both nationally and within the state. Quite recently, the Secretary of Labor personally came to Florida to discuss some of these problems with me. We appreciate the Secretary's interest as the particular problem with which he is concerned, the development and utilizing of an adequate agricultural work force, is the most pressing problem confronting Florida's agriculture economy.

For many years, Florida has had to import farm workers from the British West Indies to help harvest our crops. In recent years, however, the federal government has limited the number of workers we can obtain from this source, and many of Florida's employers have faced critical shortage of labor. Naturally, serious controversies have occurred. The federal government says, "Develop and use a domestic work force." We have said there are not enough willing domestic workers. This difference of opinion has created a situation that must be resolved.

It is both our sincere desire as well as our responsibility to provide employment and acceptable working and living conditions to domestic workers. In this effort I ask a sincere and real effort on the part of all of Florida's growers to fulfill this responsibility.

I have discussed this subject with you today because I want it to be known that the administration is aware and concerned with the problems of Florida's agriculture workers and growers. We intend to respond to our responsibilities. I also asked the assistance of Florida's workers, growers, and grower associations in working through this problem to a satisfactory solution.

New Floridaland Opened To Public

SARASOTA — A mammoth summer program has been inaugurated at Floridaland, the state's newest and fastest-growing entertainment center 10 miles south of here on U.S. 41.

Three of the 10 major attractions have been expanded, according to Donald P. Jacobs, vice president and secretary of Floridaland West Inc. Special arrangements have been set up for clubs, company outings, children's groups and old-fashioned family picnics.

Floridaland's porpoise show, acclaimed as one of the best in the country and rivaling the state's World's Fair porpoise show, has been enhanced with the addition of another performing porpoise.

In the western ghost town's gunfight between law and outlaws, horses have been added to some acts, and an occasional train robbery of one of Floridaland's four trains lends zest to realistic atmosphere. In the Golden Nugget saloon, vivacious can-can girls cavort and sing.

Population in Floridaland's spacious deer park has an increase in its cast of characters. No less than six nanny goats have been born since the attraction complex opened Christmas Day. Also in the animal cast now are five beautiful peacocks who demand the run-of-the-lot, plus a giant turkey gobbler who somehow missed last Thanksgiving's axe.

Other animals that delight children and adults alike are piglets, monkeys, guinea hens, farmyard stock and exotic birds.

Floridaland's 10 major attractions under a one-admission policy include: porpoise shows, western ghost town, shoot-outs, can-can girls, Indian Village mock-up, whiskey still, tour trains, deer park, billy-goat mountain and California sea lions. The gardens, Jacobs said, are responding splendidly to Spring rains.

Attendance at Floridaland has surpassed expectations for the first four months of operations. He predicted even greater response during the summer.

APPRECIATION

Jackson, S.C., with the National Guard where he was one of five men out of 800 chosen as an outstanding trainee and presented with a certificate of achievement.

Mrs. C. B. Jones and Alton Jones were the recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones in Clewiston.

Illegal Trucking Comes Under Fire

TALLAHASSEE — Florida Public Utilities Commission investigators have stepped up a continued campaign to wipe out illegal trucking operations in the state.

During March, investigators charged 177 truckers with violation of state transportation laws. The arrests included 107 for failure to have proper authority from the state to haul cargoes in their vehicles.

Others charged with illegal operations were towing or hauling house trailers, hauling building materials, construction aggregates, household goods, passengers, and a dozen other types of cargoes.

Investigators also charged 47 drivers with improper identification and 23 with violation of state safety rules.

Mrs. M. D. Geiger has been a patient in Everglades Memorial Hospital this week.
